AN ACT

To provide for the relief of certain civilian employees paid by the Air Force at Tachikawa Air Base, Japan.

December 18, 1969
[H. R. 2238]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That any person who was a civilian employee paid by the Air Force Accounting and Finance Officer at Tachikawa Air Base, Japan, during the period beginning on April 2, 1961, and ending on April 13, 1963, and who was promoted during that period and erroneously granted an increased living quarters allowance although his actual housing expenses were substantially well covered by the living quarters allowance applicable to him before that promotion, is relieved of all liability to refund to the United States the amounts, or which were otherwise correct, received by him as a result of this erroneous increase in his living quarters allowance. Any person who has made a repayment to the United States of any amount paid to him as a result of an erroneous increase in living quarters allowance covered by this section is entitled to have refunded to him the amount repaid.

Certain civilian employees, Air Force.

SEC. 2. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

SEC. 3. Appropriations available to the Department of the Air Force for the pay and allowances of civilian personnel are available for refunds under this Act.

Approved December 18, 1969.
